F.A.C.T.S sets record billings, new customers in 2008

For Immediate Release - Concord, Mass. - February 15, 2008 – Despite increasingly challenging economic times in the second half of the year, F.A.C.T.S achieved records in both new billings and new customers for 2008.

“F.A.C.T.S has been able to establish itself as a well respected and cost-effective business partner to a growing list of clients, ranging from start-ups to mid-tier public companies” said Bob Katz, founder and president of the company. “During 2008, we signed consulting agreements with 3 public companies and 6 privately held companies for business planning and implementation of BPM (Business Performance Management) solutions in the enterprise and SME market. While 2009 business is expected to slow considerably, our clients continue to enjoy greater productivity and economic success than they would otherwise have achieved due to F.A.C.T.S’ dedication and attentiveness to their service needs.”
